

PRESS INVITATION | BREAKFAST BRIEFING

“MAPPING AND UNDERSTANDING EXCLUSION IN EUROPE”

A unique insight into European mental health systems, ongoing human rights violations and the changes on the horizon.

WHERE?

Press Club Brussels Europe
95 Rue Froissart B-1040

Follow the livestream

STARTING AT 09.00am CET

HERE

WHEN?

Tuesday, January 16th, 2018
09:00h – 10.30h

Breakfast will be served as of 08h30

WHAT?

Interviews opportunities
Exclusive data & figures (EU & sorted by countries)
Detailed press-kit

WHY?

Join us for a press briefing about our latest European report “Mapping and Understanding Exclusion”, a unique study which looks at the state of mental health practices across Europe (35+ countries) and provides unique data and testimonies on mental health services and human rights violations in psychiatric care across Europe. This event will help you understand the state of mental health services in your own country and in Europe, and will shed light on some outdated and worrying practices and some more positive developments. Places are limited.

WHO? (Speakers) Possibility of interviews for your story.

- Nigel Henderson, President, Mental Health Europe (confirmed)
- Prof Julie-Beadle Brown, Tizard Centre, University of Kent (confirmed)
- Dainius Pūras, United Nations Special Rapporteur on the right of everyone to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of health (confirmed)
- Marie-Anne Paraskevas, Senior Policy Officer, European Commission (confirmed)
- Sabrina Palumbo, Lived experience, personal story (confirmed)

To facilitate planning and because places are limited, please confirm your attendance at ophelie.martin@mhe-sme.org (specifying name and organisation) by 12th January 2017.