Shedding Light on transparent collaboration in healthcare: a unique overview of practices in Europe

Wednesday, 23rd January 2019
European Parliament, Room A3H-1
10:00-12:45
This event is kindly hosted by MEP Nessa Childers (S&D)

10:00 Welcome from host Nessa Childers MEP

10:10 Opening – Claudia Marinetti, MHE Director

10:15 Setting the scene

- Transparency and the right to mental health – Prof. Dainius Puras, UN Special Rapporteur on the right of everyone to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of health
- Conflicts of interest in medical practice and how it may harm patients – Prof. Klaus Lieb, Psychiatrist, Mainz University Medical Center
- Why transparency in healthcare matters to users and patients?

11:00 Presentation of the Shedding Light report and recommendations for increased transparency

- Marcin Rodzinka, Shedding Light Project Coordinator, Mental Health Europe

11:15 Transparency and patients' interest: Looking at the Belgian example

- Belgian Federal Public Service (Invited)

11:30 Panel debate and discussion: "Identifying needs and seeking agreement. How to ensure greater transparency across Europe?"

- Annabel Seebohm, Secretary General, Standing Committee of European Doctors
- Ancel.la Santos Quintano, Policy Advisor, Health Action International
- European Medical Students Association (invited)
- Julie Bonhomme, European Federation of the Pharmaceutical Industries and Associations (invited)
- Nicola Bedlington, European Patients' Forum (invited)
- European Network of (Ex)Users and Survivors of Psychiatry (invited)

Moderator: Bob Grove Senior Policy Advisor, Mental Health Europe

12.25 European Commission's reaction to discussion and reflections on recommendations –

Thomas Heynisch, Deputy Head of Unit, DG GROW, European Commission

12:35 Conclusions – End of the event