

Peer Workers: Human Rights in Mental Health

#peers&HHRR

Human Rights & Persons with Mental Health problems: The Peer Workers. RECOVER-E is a Horizon 2020 project on the Community Mental Health Teams composed by a: psychologist, nurse, psychiatrist, social worker and a peer worker in five countries: Croatia, Montenegro, Romania, North Macedonia and Bulgaria. The aim, now, is to highlight the pioneer role of the peer workers.

The overall goal of the RECOVER-E project is to contribute to the implementation of and research on an evidence-based community-based service delivery model for recovery-oriented care in the five sites. Targeted to: users, mental health care professionals, policy makers, and advocacy organizations.
